Rev. Henry Morgan's new book "Shadowy Hand—Life Struggles," has awarded a new demand for his previous book Ned Nevins, the News Boy." Twenty thousand of "Ned Nevins" were sold the first year. The twenty-fifth thousand has just been issued at the low price of $1. Liberal discount to agents and the trade. Mr. Morgan has paid for his Church by "Ned Nevins" and "Fast Young Men." Desirous of inspiring every boy in the land with Ned's motto: "If I do nuthin' wrong somethin' good 'ill come to me," and with his awa motto in "Shadowy Hand": "With God to speed the right, there's ho such word as fail." Mr. Morgan has put the price within the reach of all. "Shadowy Hand" though published but a few weeks, has MR. MORGAN'S "NED NEVINS." though published but a few weeks, has reached its fifth thousand. Its sale may exceed that of "Ned Nevins." Samples
